JL- I have just found an old hand-written note that slipped under a chair:"Angle-American Directory for 1958-9, Cuba, Editorial & Publication offices Ave 33, No. 3005, Almendores Marinao, Cuba." I suppose this was noted on the chance it might help identify some of the characters of whom Hunt wrote and in whom we might have some spook interest. I don't suggest this is worth spending any time on but when you are at the library it might be worth seeing if they have a copy. If copyrighted they should. HM 2/19/74
